PRIVACY POLICY AND PRACTICES

The Company values your business and your trust. In order to administer insurance policies and provide you with effective customer service, we must collect certain information about our customers. We want you to know that we are committed to protecting your private information and we will comply with all federal, state and relevant international privacy laws (“Privacy Laws”). Below is a Privacy Notice describing our policy regarding the collection and disclosure of personal information. Please review this Notice and keep a copy of it with your records.

Your Privacy is Our Concern

When you apply to The Company for insurance or make a claim against a policy written by The Company, you disclose information about yourself to us. The Company maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with Privacy Laws to guard your personal information. We also limit employee access to personally identifiable information to those with a business reason for knowing such information. The Company instructs our employees as to the importance of the confidentiality of personal information, and takes measures to enforce employee privacy responsibilities.

What kind of information do we collect about you and from whom?

We obtain most of our information from you. The application or claim form you complete, as well as any additional information you provide, generally gives us most of the information we need to know. We may use information about you from other transactions with us or our affiliates. Depending on the nature of your insurance transaction, we may need additional information about you or other individuals proposed for coverage, and we may contact you by phone or mail to obtain this. We may also obtain the additional information we need from third parties, such as other insurance companies or agents, government agencies, medical personnel, the state motor vehicle department, credit reporting agencies, courts, or public records. A report from a consumer reporting agency may contain information as to creditworthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, hobbies, occupation, personal characteristics, or mode of living.

What do we do with the information collected about you?

We may use automated systems to make decisions based on your personal information, such as setting premium, and this helps us to be fair and efficient. If coverage is declined or the charge for coverage is increased because of information contained in a consumer report we obtained, we will inform you, as required by state law or the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. We will also give you the name and address of the consumer reporting agency making the report. We may retain information about our former customers and may disclose that information to affiliates and non-affiliates only as described in this notice.

We keep the information we collect for the minimum period allowed by law. You have the right to ask us to delete or stop using your personal information if there is no need for us to keep it, but we may not be able to provide you with products or services if we do not have the information we require.

To whom do we disclose information about you?

We may disclose all the information that we collect about you, as described above. We may disclose such information about you to our affiliated companies, such as:

- Insurance companies;
- Insurance agencies;
- Third party administrators;
- Medical bill review companies; and
- Reinsurance companies.

We may also disclose nonpublic personal information about you to affiliated and nonaffiliated third parties as permitted by law. You have a right to access and correct the personal information we collect, maintain, and disclose about you.

How to contact Us

You may obtain a more detailed description of the information practices prescribed by law by contacting us at the address below. Remember to include your name, address, policy number, and daytime phone number.

Short Form Notice and Consent

To provide our services as an insurer, EIA will collect and use personal information about you, such as your name, age and contact details so that we can arrange insurance cover for you. During the period of your insurance you may also provide special personal information (e.g. about your health) that may be used by EIA and by us, so that we can process your insurance and deal with any claim you make.

We may pass your personal information to third parties such as medical emergency providers, reinsurers, loss adjusters, sub-contractors and affiliates, who will use your personal information for processing your insurance and handling claims, as well as for the purposes described in our Privacy Notice. Certain regulators may also require your personal information for their own purposes which are also described in our Privacy Notice.

We may transfer your personal information to other countries which have limited or no data protection laws. Any transfer will be made with appropriate safeguards in place to ensure your personal information is held securely.

Any information you provide may be used by EIA and by us for crime prevention.

We will not share your personal information with third parties for marketing purposes.

You have the right to see the personal information we hold about you, and you must make this request in writing and give your full name and address. You should send your request to dataprotection@awac.com

Your consent to our processing of your personal information in the way described in this Notice is necessary for us to be able to provide you with insurance cover, and the services required to fulfil our obligations to you, and you hereby consent to such processing. You may withdraw your consent at any time, but if you do, we may be unable to provide services to you, or process any claim, and your insurance cover will come to an end.

Where you are providing personal information about anyone other than yourself, you must provide them with this Notice and obtain their explicit consent as set out above.

Please see Our personal data privacy policy statement for further information in accordance with applicable laws at <https://www.alliedworldinsurance.com>. A copy may also be requested from, or any personal data privacy queries directed to, dataprotection@awac.com.
